What the current membership of the Rice County Genealogical Society lacks in size is made up by its enthusiasm in searching out the history of those who came to live in or who passed through Rice County. We are all very actively working on our family lines, and, when we have queries from others not in our family lines who seek help on their research projects, we refer them to two of our current members who are willing to do research for a fee. A reminder that all dues for 2002 are now due.

At the November 20th meeting at Northfield, the current officers agreed to serve for another year and an additional work session in the Marston Headley Research Room was scheduled for December 11th from 10:00 a.m. until noon, followed by lunch at Hogan Bros.

Because of the limited space available in the Marston Headley Research Room, RCGS members met with Northfield Historical Society director Anneliese Detwiler and its volunteer archivist Ruth Crane to discuss materials which should be retained and which should be stored elsewhere or disposed of. Holdings to be retained for research will include those on Northfield, Rice County, Minnesota and surrounding states, space available. While there is still much work to be done to complete the organization and consolidation of the Research Room materials, very significant progress has been made. The opening of the Research Room to the public will be announced when work is completed.

The December 18th meeting is the special Annual Christmas get-together which will begin with 11:30 a.m. lunch at The Depot restaurant in Faribault followed by a short meeting at the Rice Co. Oliver b. 1852; 5) Clara Elizabeth "Dolly" b. 4 Jan. 1858 (first white child born in Dundas) and John Harvey Orr b. 13 Jan. 1856; 6) George Archie b. 17 Nov. 1863 and Bertha E. Fish Taylor b. 29 Dec. 1867; and 7) Walter Blackmore Taylor b. 14 Aug. 1866 following his father's death by drowning when going to work after the Cannon River cut a second channel during flood stage in Apr. 1866.

Dorothy will be most grateful for any additional information/photos she receives and sources will be acknowledged.

The following information is extracted from an article which appeared in the Faribault Daily News 23 Dec. 2001:

After 19 years, Conrad Peterzen, a member of the Iron Range Genealogical Society and a volunteer at the Iron Range Research Center in Chisholm, MN, has completed indexing the immigrant naturalization records of every person naturalized in Minnesota before 1955. The microfilm records from all 87 MN counties covering 760,000 individuals has been computerized and published into dozens of indexed books that alphabetically lists every person county by county. The books are held at the Iron Range Research Center, an Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Board facility at Ironworld Discovery Center in Chisholm. Mr. Peterzen's project is believed to be the only one of its kind in the nation.

The research analyst at the Iron Range Research Center is Deb Fena.
